Hi Nick - I believe we had planned on dedicating the mtg this time around to crime and homelessness issues. I'm not sure we'll have time to change directions and have a meaningful convo. Can it wait until next month?

Do you have an agenda set for this week's meeting?

I want to present our DTLA: Make It Yours campaign to the group at some point. It's a great vehicle for collaboration. We're partnering with SP on its first big component, the Downtown Open House event on July 15th.

Next up is office and retail and definitely want to partner wherever possible on those too.
